

THE ARGOS TIMES

Monstrous Medusa Mayhem!

By Mia

Last week on the Island of Sarpedon located in the Aegean Sea, Demi-god Perseus, son of Zeus, returned to Argos after he defeated the grotesque gorgon Medu-sa! The hero claimed that he only did it to protect his mother - Danae - from death.

Our hero saves us from all of our worries.
Thank You Perseus.

Seven days ago, Demi-god Perseus began his journey to Sarpedon to slay the gorgon Medusa. However, on his quest he was visited by two gods. Out of nowhere, two gods (Hermes and Athena) were holding all the equipment Perseus could ever need to kill Medusa.
Hermes had his winged boots and Athena had a sharp sword and a mirrored shield.
